Learning Pathways to Liberation

Dr. Tuli Patel has invited us: "Look within. What's my blueprint - the place I come from? What structures of oppression are built into my very being and how am I complicit in perpetuating them? How can I alter them and stretch the walls of comfort to include the discomfort on the journey towards liberation?"

Getting Started

 Summit Interfaith Council's Anti-Racism Council (ARC) leads local New Jersey folks to form a commitment bound relationship to explore racism.

 1.0 and 2.0 courses build upon each other to deepen learning.

Involving Faith

 A workshop developed by longtime UU leader and 8th Principle advocate, Paula Cole Jones, Jubilee helps you explore systems of racism and oppression through a UU lens.

Going Deeper

• STILL IN DEVELOPMENT

 Beacon is creating a curriculum for exploring race & racism in our own beloved community, and inspiring our members to be the change

RACIAL EQUITY INSTITUTE (REI)

- REI's 'Groundwater' and 'Phase 1' trainings help you understand racism in its institutional and structural forms.
- Purely individual in its approach, good for everyone regardless of identity or experience.

DIALOGUE CIRCLES ON RACE

BELOVED CONVERSATIONS

- Developed by the Fahs
   Collective at Meadville
   Lombard Theological School,
   this course is based on UU theology.
- 'WITHIN' course is a personal exploration of race and racism, with separate groups based on white or BIPOC identity.

JUBILEE 3.0

 This program for white people deeply explores how whiteness benefits us, what it costs us and how to take responsibility for undoing the harmful effects of white conditioning.

FAITH FORMATION

This is not the end!

The journey toward liberation is lifelong. Keep your progress going by retaking past courses or finding new teachings.
